The design industry loves Photoshop because it enables designers to manipulate raster images in order to create great-looking images and websites. Photoshop's multi-step editing tools work with raster images, whereas many other image-editing programs, such as GIMP and Paint Shop Pro, work with vector images that are made using the Adobe Illustrator program. If you're looking for an inexpensive alternative to Photoshop, check out Canvas and Affinity Photo for iOS, or open source offerings such as GIMP for OS X, and as the user-friendly story continues to unfold, its popularity is showing no signs of flagging.

The more complex features of Photoshop are located in the additional 'Pro' and 'Premier' versions, and professional editors will undoubtedly favor these over Elements. But for the average photography enthusiast, Elements is a great deal cheaper than Photoshop, while still containing many useful features. Adobe Photoshop Elements is a graphics editor for photographers, image editors and hobbyists. It contains most of the features of the professional version, but with fewer features and a simpler user interface. Elements' file size is surprisingly small and so the tool is great for editing photos on any device. It is also a great editing tool for beginners. 4th 4S World Choir Games The 4th 4S World Choir Games is an international music competition for choirs, with particular emphasis on multicultural choirs, singing in English, held in Tashkent, Uzbekistan, from 18–22 April 2019. It is the second time the event is being held in Uzbekistan. The event was cancelled in 2018, with the organizers citing security concerns stemming from previous years' events. Organizers did not provide further comment on the cancellation. History The 4th 4S was confirmed on 25 October 2016, with the hosts country being announced on 24 October. Event organizer Tamara Yuliya Samkueva told AFP she would "deliver its fourth edition in 2019 in Uzbekistan, for the first time in the country's history." This edition of the event is being held for the first time in Uzbekistan since the inaugural edition in 2012. Organizer Tamara Yuliya Samkueva told AFP that this change in location was intended to allow the event to be held in an "unpolluted" location. Athletics events featuring only Uzbek athletes were also a part of the program at the event. This was the first time a Tashkent event featured solely Uzbek athletics competition and raised some controversy, particularly among the European teams, with one European manager telling The Guardian that her team was "incredibly disappointed" with what transpired. Host country of 4th 4S World Choir Games Uzbekistan is the first time that the 4th 4S World Choir Games is being held in Uzbekistan, with the event being held for the first time in Tashkent, Uzbekistan, a country where the Tashkent metro area is the largest city and metropolitan area in the country, which has a population of approximately seven million. Opening ceremony The opening ceremony of the 4th 4S World Choir Games took place on 18 April 2019. Russian church music conductor and composer Vladimir Khotinenko, conductor of the Moscow Philharmonic Orchestra and of the Leningrad Philharmonic Orchestra, was the conductor and musical director of the event, with Yu Miura, the State Ensemble of the Republic of Uzbekistan and the choir of the State Opera Theatre of the Republic of Uzbekistan as the chorus. Organizers of the event placed heavy emphasis on the atmosphere in the opening ceremony, with the opening ceremony being broadcast live across Tashkent and
